

Scottish Clinical Skills Network

Bulletin
December 2010

Welcome to the Scottish Clinical Skills Network Members Bulletin, a source of information for all our members. We hope to produce this bulletin three times a year and in it we shall have information for members, updates on the forthcoming conference and abstract submission and details of any workshops which will be running throughout the coming months. Any member who wishes to have something added into the bulletin should contact the SCSN Administrator at scsn@dundee.ac.uk

The SCSN has Institutional Membership of ASME and examples of benefits to members are - discounts off ASME publications and discounts are available on fees for five representatives of the institution at ASME conferences. Full information can be found by accessing the ASME website via the following link <http://www.asme.org.uk/institutional-membership.html>

SCSN Conference 2011
